

Maulbetsch, Best Plunging Back of Season.

When it comes time to write a re-sum of the 1914 football season one player who will certainly receive large gobs of praise from the experts is Maulbetsch, the Michigan left half-back. As a demonstration of ability to give every possible ounce of strength to supporting a cause and then when that strength seems waning still finding down in the source-springs of power the something which sends a human back to the attack.

Defeated in Less Than Eight Minutes

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 14.—In a little less than eight minutes of play Auburn had defeated Vanderbilt here this afternoon and had further strengthened her claim to championship in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The game played in dreary, vapory weather, ended with a score of 8 to 0 and Auburn's goal line remained uncrossed.

A series of desperate line players, mixed up with several fake kick and fake forward pass formations enabled Auburn to score the only touchdown for the game. Vanderbilt seemed unable to cope with the plunging Auburn machine in the first few minutes of play, but after her goal line had been crossed there was a complete transformation. During the last three quarters Vanderbilt played desperately and brilliantly, forcing Auburn constantly to the defensive.

V. P. I. Victorious Over North Carolina A. & M.

ROANOKE, Va., Nov. 14.—Plying a defensive game throughout, V. P. I. through good kicking and better generalship, won from the superior North Carolina A. & M. team here this afternoon at 3 to 0. A field goal from 30 yards by Quarterback Murray in the third quarter being the only score.

The field was soggy from a three hour rain and the going was treacherous, the Aggies losing at least one touchdown when Fullback Tenny slipped on V. P. I. three yard line and then failed on a field goal from the ten yard line. The winners never failed to kick when in danger and did not carry the 7-11 twenty yards during the first half.

Yale Defeated Princeton 19-14

(By Associated Press.) PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 14.—Yale defeated Princeton 19 to 14 today, in a football game which for thrilling climax rivaled modern stage craft at its best. Backstuck and scored upon with apparent ease during the first three periods, the Tigers tore loose with a smashing attack in the final 21 minutes and fairly riddled the Eli's line. Twice the Orange and Black swept across the Eli's goal line and when time was called were fighting desperately for a third touchdown and a victory.

No similar situation has developed in many years in the annual game between these two universities. With its thrilling moments of spectacular play and gripping uncertainty, the contest formed a most fitting dedication of Princeton's new Palmer memorial stadium. Forty thousand cheering spectators filled the great gray portico. A vast sea of blue and white, entire absence of wind made playing conditions perfect. During three quarters of the game there was nothing indicative of the sensational climax with which Princeton was to make memorable the dedication of its new football arena. Forced to take the defensive from the very beginning, the Tigers showed little strength at any time. They seemed to be completely puzzled by the wide open attack in which the Blue backfield passed the ball from player to player in runs around the end and then suddenly switched to long forward passes.

However, the Orange and Black played like a new combination in the final quarter, when Blue substitutes had been sent to the field. Yale's first string men were quickly put back into play, but once the Tigers got going, they were not to be stopped. Two touchdowns were scored and with less than five minutes of play, Princeton started for another touchdown. Captain Talbot frantically urged his players to make a last stand and they responded nobly. Princeton found its gain cut down from yards to feet and resorted to forward passes, but they were broken up by the Blues' alert backfield and when the game ended the ball was in midfield.

Army Wins from Maine. WEST POINT, Nov. 14.—The army won from Maine today, 28 to 0. The game was featured by the fine work of O'Phant, who scored three of the Cadets' touchdowns and kicked four goals.

First Victory Since 1909. ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 14.—The Georgia School of Technology defeated the University of Georgia in football here today, 7 to 0. It was the first victory of the technical institution over the State University since 1909.

Dartmouth Defeats Pennsylvania. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.—Dartmouth defeated Pennsylvania today, 41 to 0, the highest score ever registered against a Red and Blue team on Franklin Field. Pennsylvania was outplayed in every department and the Green's goal never was in danger.

A Fierce Struggle. CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 14.—Tennessee triumphed over Sewanee in football here today, 14 to 7 in one of the fiercest struggles ever staged on a local gridiron. Sewanee fought desperately after she had allowed Tennessee to take the lead, forward passes and end runs enabling her to threaten Tennessee's goal in the final period. However, the force to score was lacking.

All the scoring was done in the first half. Florida Defeats Citadel. CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 14.—On a field inches deep in mud and water Florida defeated Citadel 7 to 0, this afternoon. A hard driving rain fell during the first half. Florida scored in the first few minutes of play when Ramsdell ran the initial kickoff back forty yards. Sparkman carried the ball over after a succession of line blocks by Fuller, Ray, Sell and Sparkman. Citadel played strong uphill game, but appeared weak on offense, nothing but straight football could be used.

No Match for Notre Dame. CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—The crippled Carle Indians were no match for Notre Dame today, losing to the Hoosiers, 6 to 48. Welsh, the Chippewa fullback, was badly injured and was taken unconscious to a hospital.

LEXINGTON, Va., Nov. 14.—Washington and Lee won the South Atlantic Intercollegiate cross country run today from the University of Virginia, 17 to 4.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 14.—The University of Pennsylvania association football team defeated Harvard two goals to none today.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 14.—Princeton and Yale tied, 1 and 1, at Soccer today.

RESULTS

- At New York: Fordham 7; Vermont 7. At Charleston, W. Va.: Washington and Lee 8; West Virginia 6. Asheville N. C.: Asheville School 12; Carson-Newman 7. At Williamsburg, Va.: Hampton-Sydney 41; William and Mary 0. At Charleston, S. C.: University of Florida 7; Citadel 0. At Jacksonville, Fla.: Final—Mercer 44; Stetson 0. At Swarthmore, Pa.: Final—Swarthmore 6; Virginia 47. At Greenville, S. C.: Furman 3; Newberry 13. At Columbia, S. C.: Davidson 13; University of South Carolina 7. At Lewisburg, Pa.: Bucknell 25; Gettysburg 6. At Worcester, Mass.: Holy Cross 10; Boston College 0. At Pittsburgh: Pittsburg 14; Carnegie Tech Institute 0. At Amherst, Mass.: Williams 14; Amherst 6. At Medford, Mass.: Tufts 60; Bowdoin 7. At Andover, N. H.: Phillips Andover 7; Phillips Exeter 78. At Middletown, Conn.: Wesleyan 9; Trinity 0. At Manchester, N. H.: New Hampshire 9; Rhode Island 9. At Easton, Pa.: Lafayette 42; Albright 6. At Syracuse, N. Y.: Syracuse 0; Colgate 0. At South Bethlehem, Pa.: Lehigh 10; Villa Nova 0. At New Haven: Yale Freshman 35; Harvard Freshman 6. At Schenectady: Union 26; Hamilton 7. At Baltimore: Haverford 10; Johns Hopkins 0. At Rochester, N. Y.: Rochester 6; Hobart 1. At New York: Vermont 7; Fordham 6. At Hoboken, N. J.: Stevens 0; New York University 31. At Collegeville, Pa.: Ursinus 6; Franklin and Marshall 6. At Cincinnati: Oberlin 2; University of Cincinnati 6. At Lexington, Ky.: University of

Choice of the Best in READY-TO-WEAR At GREATLY REDUCED PRICES

Owing to the "Depression in Cotton" and the late Fall Sea son, we find ourselves OVERSTOCKED in Ready-to-Wear, hence this Bona-fide CUT in prices. As is well known in Anderson, nothing but the VERY BEST in Ready-to-Wear, so you NOW have the opportunity of buying your Fall Suits, Coats, Dresses, Millinery, etc., at almost your own price.

These Prices Mean Eager, Early Buyers Monday Morning Be Here Then For First Choice

Sale Starts Monday, November 16, Will Continue Until December 1

Table with 3 columns: SUITS, COATS, DRESSES. Lists various items and their reduced prices, such as $35.00 Suits now $26.25, $25.00 Coats now $20.00, etc.

THESE PRICES ARE SPOT CASH

Table with 3 columns: MILLINERY, SKIRTS, EVENING DRESSES. Lists various items and their reduced prices, such as $10.00 Pattern Hats now $5.00, $6.00 Skirts now $4.98, etc.

All Ready-to-wear on Second Floor; Millinery on Main Floor

D. GEISBERG THE ORIGINAL LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR STORE

stay of one year in Anderson has been more than pleasant, said Mr. Dahner. W. P. Wright said that he had been looking forward to this affair ever since the last one took place but that he had not hoped for such a delightful evening as this one proved to be. Mayor Godfrey was next introduced and he told his hearers that he proposed to see to it that the cotton mill men get a square deal. He said that the city was ready and willing, he believed, to work the streets in the cotton mill villages, provided the mill companies would deed the streets to the city. The mayor told his hearers that he had three of the councilmen, Messrs. Spearman, Tate and Carter, were with him and that they would see to it that the cotton mill men got a square deal and got all that was coming to them. He thinks that with this number of councilmen willing to aid that the street work in the mill villages can easily be disposed of and that they can accomplish what was promised during the campaign. F. J. Clark, one of the most popular of all the Anderson cotton mill workers, was received with delight and made a splendid address. He told what he hoped to accomplish in the way of aiding his workers and says that his helpers are the finest people in the world. C. O. Carter made a hit with the crowd and delighted them for several minutes with his witty remarks. W. C. Austin spoke for some time on the relations of the church and the cotton mill man and told them that they should continue the interest in the church work among them. The last speaker was General M. L. Bonham and he made a heart to heart talk. Gen. Bonham is a great favorite with the men of the cotton mills and he was at his best Friday night. He told the cotton mill men of his willingness to aid them at any time in their fights and assured them of his desire to help them at any time. "Willie—Pa, can you send a dog by parcel post?" "Pa—Yes, if it is male, my son."